Treaties of Rome Anniversary Sixty years ago the E.U. was born

by Francesco Isgrò

The 60th Anniversary of the Treaties of Rome was commemorated at the Italian Embassy on March 22, 2017, with a concert "In Dreams Awake," original symphonies written for the event by Maestro Gabriele Ciampi. Angelino Alfano, Italy's Foreign Minister opened the celebration, which was attended by government dignitaries and Washington diplomats.

In his welcoming remarks, Alfano said that the European Union was a success story: "What unites us prevails over our differences, and the eagerness to be together is stronger than any disagreement."

"It is particularly significant to celebrate here in Washington, D.C. the 60th Anniversary of the Treaties of Rome and the start of the European project," said the Ambassador of Italy to the United States Armando Varricchio. "The U.S. contribution
